Crypto Wallets

What are Crypto or Digital wallets and what are they used for?

Blockchain is accessed by Crypto Wallets.

Crypto Wallet holds your public and private keys for accessing on-chain data and transactions.

Wallet also shows all of your crypto, NFTs and Web3 accounts.

It is used for signing transactions on the chain and for holding and managing your crypto assets.

On the left, the website interface features the Phantom logo, navigation links for Overview, Security, Blog, and Support, and a prominent 'Download' button. The main headline reads 'A friendly crypto wallet', followed by a description: 'Phantom makes it safe & easy for you to store, buy, send, receive, swap tokens and collect NFTs on the Solana blockchain.' Below this are 'Download' and 'Watch' buttons, and a note that the app is available on iOS, Android, Chrome, Brave, and more.

Approve your transaction

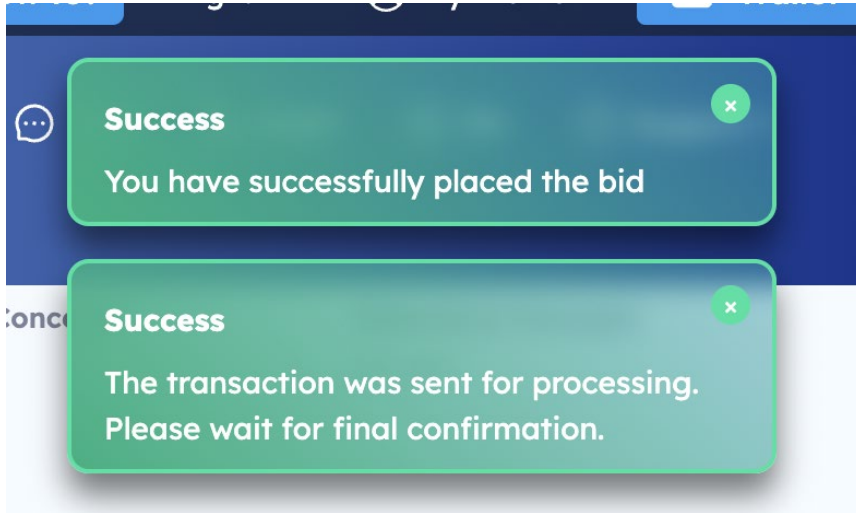

Every time you want to buy something or place a bid, you will need to Approve transactions.

When approving a transaction it comes with a cost, please review the costs and then click Approve if you agree with the costs listed.

Usually it's a price of the item + network fee.

Network fees on Solana are really low, so usually that will not be a problem.

Congratulations!

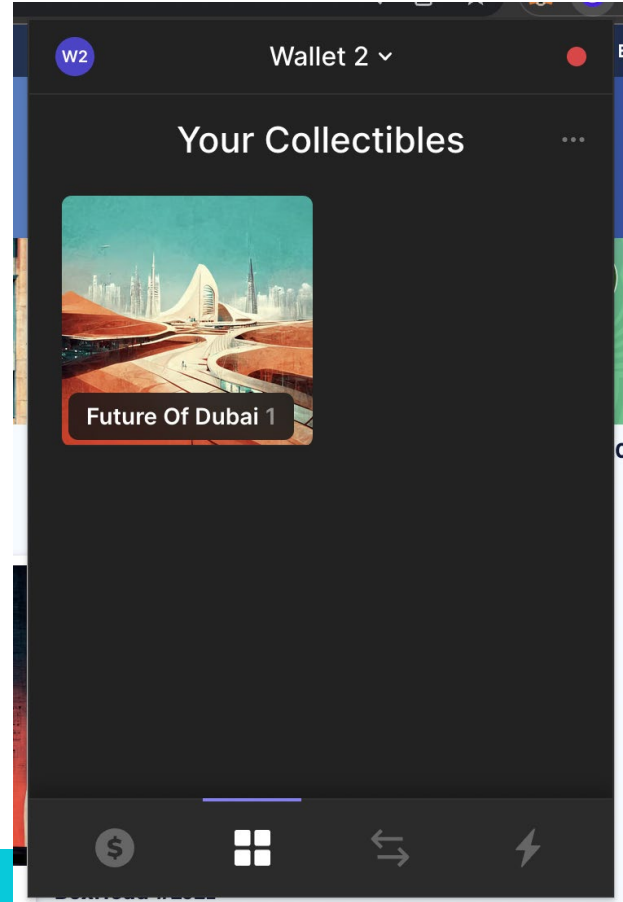

You just placed your bid / bought your first NFT.

In this Workshop we are placing bids so you need to wait the owner of the NFT collection to approve your bids.

Congratulations!

After your Bid is accepted, you will be able to see your first NFT in your wallet!

If you don't see it, click on the Gallery icon on your wallet!
